

Chrysoula Anagnostopoulou, PhD

Studies:

- Degree in European Culture, Hellenic Open University
- Postgraduate Diploma, "Culture and Human Development", Department of Philosophy and Social Studies, University of Crete
- Doctoral Dissertation on the business activity of women publishers in the Ottoman period from 1887 to 1922, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies, University of Crete

Foreign Languages:

- English, Italian, Turkish

Research interests:

- History of women and gender
- History of the Greek and Ottoman Women's Press
- History of women's publishing and business
- Social and Economic History
- Oral History

Article publications:

- "The Women's Issue in the Journal Vosporis", 32 Mnimon (2011-2012),
- "Cornelia L. Preveziotou - Tavaniotou (Constantinople 1878 - Athens 1964). The Editor and the Contemporary Greek and foreign light literature and poetry". Proceedings of the 6th Postgraduate Student Meeting of the Department of Greek Literature, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, 13-15 May 2011
- "Views on the entrepreneurial activity of the Scholar and Publisher Eleni Svoronou (1879-1918)", in From Autonomy to the National State. The incorporation of Samos in Greece. Proceedings of the conference, Samos, 2-4 November 2012

Events – Conferences:

- Coordination of Event - Exhibition "The World of the Scholar and Publisher Cornelia Preveziotou - Tavaniotou (Constantinople 1878 - Athens 1964)", at the Museum of History of the University of Athens, 13 December 2014
- Participation in the Exhibition and Conference organization "Women's Press - Women of the Press. Women's Periodicals and Women Editors in the Ottoman Space», Rethymno, 9-11 November 2018